

GDPR Statement

The General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") will be effective as of 25 May 2018. The GDPR aims to strengthen the protection of personally identifiable information in the EU.

EVO Payments International GmbH welcomes the arrival of the GDPR. EVO's success is underpinned by our vision "to be the most trusted and innovative partner in the payments industry, delivering best-in-class solutions to our valued customers in the markets we serve." We build and maintain the trust of our employees, customers and other stakeholders with our relentless focus on quality and security and through our mission "to forge enduring partnerships through the delivery of innovative, reliable and secure payment solutions, backed by an uncompromising commitment to exceed the needs of our customers and partners." We consider the security of our employees', customers' and third parties' personally identifiable information very important.

We consider it our duty to comply with national and international data protection regulations globally. We strive to operate with industry leading standards for transparency, predictability and consistency.

Certifications

As a member of the Payment Card Industry, we have adopted multiple technical and organisational measures to be compliant with the high standards imposed by the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards.

Physical Security

As a member of the Payment Card Industry, we are also involved in the physical security of our employees', customers' and third parties' personally identifiable information.

Data Protection & Security

EVO has implemented and diligently reviews and updates its data protection systems and security at all of its facilities and in respect of all its IT platforms and functions.

GDPR Implementation

Although we have already implemented a consistent level of data protection and security in our data centres, our aim is to be fully compliant with the GDPR and all other applicable data protection laws in a timely manner. This includes keeping internal records of all our data processing activities and having a process to accommodate the rights of our data subjects.

Contact Person

If your personal data are processed by EVO and you are a data subject within the meaning of the GDPR, you have the right to demand access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, data portability and to object to the data processing according to Art. 15 to 21 of the GDPR. In case you want to exercise these rights or have related questions, please contact our Data Protection Officer Dr. Karsten Kinast (evo@kinast-partner.de). Please include your full name, relationship with EVO and the reason for your request.
